

Acknowledgments

Phil Lindy, sponsor of the K-16 Network and this event.

School District of Philadelphia, for hosting us

All speakers and presenters!

K-16 Partnerships Institute

June 2-3, 2011

School District of Philadelphia
440 N. Broad St.

Welcome to the 2011
K-16 Partnerships Institute

June 2nd

- 9:00-9:45      Breakfast and Introductions
- 9:45-11:45    Concurrent Sessions
- Training and Reflection Models
  - Student Teaching
  - Working with CBO Partners
- 12:00-1:00    Networking Lunch: 1072, 1173
- 1:00-2:30     PhillyGoes2College and the Mayor's Office of Civic Engagement and Volunteer Service
- 2:30-3:30     United Way Update
- 3:30-5:00     Discussion

June 3, 11:00 AM-12:00 PM
Mayor's Office of Education: College Access and Success

Description

Presenters:
Dr. Lori Shorr, Chief Education Officer, City of Philadelphia

June 3, 1:00-3:00 PM
Opportunities to Partner with the School District of Philadelphia

This session will focus on how colleges and universities, and in particular, their students, can help to fill gaps in programming given the severe budget constraints slated for next year.

- Presenters:
- Deborah Wei, Director of Multilingual Curriculum and Programs
  - Janiece Frisby, Advanced Placement Programs, Office of Secondary School Reforms
  - Justin Grayson, Program Manager, GEAR UP

June 2, 2:30-3:30 PM
United Way Update
Room 1072

Here updates from the United Way, which is coordinating a companion effort to support nonprofit organizations working in schools.

Presenters:

- Lynda Terrell, Senior Manager, Mentoring and Special Projects, United Way of Southeastern Pennsylvania
- Dr. Cheryl Oakman, Director, Center for Youth Development, United Way of Southeastern Pennsylvania

June 3, 9:15-11:00 AM
Documenting and Collecting Data

This session will help participants to reflect on their own data collecting and evaluation processes. The goal of this session is also to talk about how we, as a group want, want to document and share information about school-based programs.

Presenters:

- Dr. Joyce Munro, Associate Dean for Partnerships, Grants and Faculty Development, College of Education, West Chester University
- Rachel Howe, Director of the Temple Community Learning Network, Temple University
- Dr. Gretchen Suess, Director of Evaluation, Netter Center for Community Partnerships, University of Pennsylvania
- Dr. Sarah Costelloe, Director, Office of School Innovation and Best Practices, School District of Philadelphia

June 3rd

|             |                                                                          |
|-------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 9:00-9:15   | Breakfast and Introductions                                       |
| 9:15-11:00  | Documenting and Collecting Data                                   |
| 11:00-12:00 | Mayor's Office of Education: College Access and Success           |
| 12:00-1:00  | Lunch                                                             |
| 1:00-3:00   | Opportunities to Partner with the School District of Philadelphia |
| 3:00-4:00   | Closing Discussion                                                |

Descriptions of Sessions

June 2, 9:45-11:45 AM

Training and Reflection Models

Room 1072

This session will focus on best practices in preparing college students to work in Philadelphia public schools. Ongoing reflection will also be discussed.

Presenters:

- Dr. Cynthia Belliveau, Adult Organizational Development, Temple University
- Dr. Robert Vogel, Professor of Education, LaSalle University, and Director of Writers Matter
- Dr. Hannah Ashley, Associate Professor of English, Composition and Rhetoric, West Chester University, and Director, Writing Zones 12.5
- Ellie Esmond, Co-Director, Civic Engagement Office, Bryn Mawr College
- Suzanna Alter, Parkway West High School Programs Coordinator, Bryn Mawr College

Student Teaching

Room 1071

This session will focus on student teaching in the School District of Philadelphia. This will allow participants to discuss logistical issues and related to student teaching in Philadelphia and how area colleges can better communicate with schools, teachers, and the District.

Presenters:

- Dr. Ellen Scales, Director of School and Community Collaboration, Arcadia University
- Dr. Leonard Soroka, Dean of the School of Education, Holy Family University

Working with CBO Partners

Room 2172

This session will feature three different nonprofit organizations that work effectively in Philadelphia schools and propose ways in which college students may work in schools with the support of those organizations.

Presenters:

- Kim Kirn, Professional Development Director, Need in Deed
- Monica Lyons-Jones, Program Manager, Need in Deed
- Jenny Cardoso, Program Manager, Philadelphia Academies
- Dr. Jane Kauer, Anthropology Department, University of Pennsylvania
- Hillary Kane, Director, PHENND

June 2, 1:00-2:30 PM

PhillyGoes2College and the Mayor's Office of Civic Engagement and Volunteer Service

Room 1072

This session will discuss how to involve college students in college access work, and how to build autonomy and agency for college students in shaping this work through PhillyGoes2College and the Mayor's Office of Civic Engagement and Volunteer Service

Presenters:

- Catherine Wolfgang, Chief Service Officer, City of Philadelphia
- Barbara Mattleman, Director, PhillyGoes2College
- Shandra Bernath-Plaisted, College Access Coordinator, PG2C
- Sonia Elliott, College Access Outreach, PG2C

