

Acknowledgments

Phil Lindy, sponsor of the K-16 Network and this event.

School District of Philadelphia, for hosting us.

All speakers and presenters, this conference wouldn't happen without your efforts!

The logo for PHENND (Philadelphia Higher Education Network for Neighborhood Development) features the word "PHENND" in a bold, black, sans-serif font. The letters "H", "E", and "N" are stylized to resemble building silhouettes with windows. Below the text is a black silhouette of a city skyline, and underneath that, the full name "Philadelphia Higher Education Network for Neighborhood Development" is written in a smaller, black, sans-serif font.

Philadelphia Higher Education Network for Neighborhood Development

Second Annual K-16 Partnerships Institute

June 6-7, 2012

School District of Philadelphia
440 N. Broad St.

Welcome to the 2012 K-16 Partnerships Institute

June 6th

9:00-9:45 Breakfast and Introductions
Room 1072

9:45-11:25 Concurrent Sessions

- Creating K-16 Pipelines to Jobs in Philadelphia 1072
- Creating Collaborative Support for Multicultural Students in College at West Chester University 1069
- The Benefits of Alternative Fieldwork Placements for First and Second Year Education Students 1080

11:30-12:45 Keynote Speaker and Lunch
Re-framing how we think about higher education for low-income students Presented by Nick Torres

12:50-2:15 Plenary Panel Session
Reflecting on A Year with the K-16 Partnerships Network

2:30-3:30 Action Planning Process Part I

- Non-Profit Partnerships: Room 1072
- Service-Learning: 1069
- College Access: 1080

3:30-4:00 Discussion

How to Influence K-12 Curriculum Statewide

The newly reformed Pennsylvania Service Learning Alliance (PSLA) will present its goals, services and methods of supporting and expanding K-16 service-learning in Pennsylvania. New project with the Pennsylvania Department of Education will be discussed.

Presenters: Hillary Kane, PHENND and Karen Kaseky, PenSERVE: Governor's Office of Citizen Service

June 7, 12:00-1:15

Lunch and Information Session

Report back and discussion of the Education First Compact meeting, current SRC meetings and responses to the major reorganizations in the School District of Philadelphia.

June 7, 1:15-2:30

Panel Discussion: The Importance of Service-Learning, College Access and Leadership in Building Strong K-16 Pipelines in Philadelphia

This panel session will feature college student leaders who will discuss how their involvement with service-learning and community engagement has specifically affected their career goals and ability obtain meaningful opportunities.

- Alex McNeil: Director, Project EDU
- Zuri Stone: Next Steps, West Chester University
- Parkway Northwest Student Leadership Team Representative
- Brittney Whitehead, AVID Tutoring representative, Temple University

June 7, 2:30-3:30

Action Planning Part II

This session will be a continuation of the planning that happened in day one which will include new ideas and conclusions from day two. By the end of this session each committee will have established a mission statement and goals for 2012-2013.

June 7, 3:30-4:00

Concluding Discussion

Each Action Planning group will present their goals for the upcoming year and questions that need to be answered regarding partnering with Philadelphia schools

College Access Committee

Presenters:

- Rhasaan Nicols, Director, Postsecondary Scholarship Programs CORE Scholars
- Liz Shriver, PHENND
- Jennifer Cardoso, Philadelphia Academies
- Zuri Stone, West Chester University
- Elijah Simmons, Penn State Schuylkill

The Teacher Education Alliance (TEA)

Presenters:

- Joyce Munroe, Associate Dean College of Education, West Chester University

June 6. 2:30-3:30

Action Planning Process Part I

Committee Planning for 2012-2013

This session will separate participants into four focus areas: non-profit partnerships, service-learning, college access and teacher education. If not already in a committee, participants may self-select based on interest area. Each group will begin to create a mission statement and collaborative agenda for the upcoming year regarding our partnerships with Philadelphia schools.

June 7, 10:20AM--12:00 PM

Youth Leadership and Service-Learning in K-12

Room 1080

In this session participants will work the youth leadership team from Parkway Northwest High School for Peace and Social Justice. The Leadership Team will be discussing why service-learning and community engagement enhances learning in the classroom and how you can become a part of this process.

Presenters:

- Stephanie Strokis, Parkway Peace Fellow
- Parkway Northwest Leadership Team Representatives

Welcome to the 2012 K-16 Partnerships Institute

June 7th

10:00-10:20 Networking breakfast and Sign-in
Room 1072

10:20-12:00 Concurrent Sessions

- Youth Leadership and Service-Learning in K-12, 1080
- How to Influence K-12 Curriculum Statewide, 1072

12:00-1:15 Lunch and Information Session
Room 1072

*Report back from the Education First Compact Meeting:
School District Reorganization Plans and Partnerships*

1:15-2:30 Panel with Youth Leaders
Room 1072

The Importance of Service-Learning, College Access and Leadership in Building K-16 Pipelines in Philadelphia

2:30-3:30 Action Planning Part II

- Non-Profit Partnerships: Room 1072
- Service-Learning: 1075
- College Access: 1080

3:30-4:00 Concluding Discussion

Descriptions of Sessions

June 6, 9:45-11:25 AM

Creating K-16 Pipelines to Jobs in Philadelphia

Room 1080

In this panel session industry professionals who partner with public schools will discuss how to create stronger high school to industry pipelines in Philadelphia.

Presenters:

- Alyssa Cherkin, Community Involvement Leader at Deloitte Services LP and member of the Greater Philadelphia Corporate Volunteer Council
- Alison Acevido, Health Academies ER Project Coordinator for Philadelphia Academies
- Dr. Michael Daley, Founder and coordinator of SYSTEMS Program in New Hope-Solesbury High School.

The Benefits of Alternative Fieldwork Placements for First and Second Year Education Students

Room 1072

This session will discuss how placements that focus on service-learning and training in areas such as conflict resolution and AVID tutoring can enhance a pre-service teachers' motivation towards working in urban education in addition to providing new skill sets to be used in the classroom.

Presenters and Individual Topics:

- Janice Steinberg: English teacher, service-learning specialist and pre-service teacher mentor: Service-learning as a key educational strategy in urban classrooms in Philadelphia.
- Alex McNeil: Project EDU: Pre-service teacher's experiences with volunteer projects in public schools and building a trained volunteer force.
- learning.

- Alex Keene, certified English teacher and AVID tutor, Arcadia University, Liz Shriver, AVID tutor coordinator: AVID Tutoring as a field placement: Learning alternative tutoring methodology and gaining confidence in the classroom.
- Cindy Belliveau, Assistant Professor, Dept. of Psychological Studies in Education: Conflict Resolution as a behavior management strategy for pre-service teachers and the benefits of "side by side" service-

June 6, 11:30-12:45 PM

Keynote Speaker, Nick Torres: Re-framing higher education options for low-income students in Philadelphia

Room 1072

Nick Torres will be leading a discussion about community-based higher education through the I-Lead program. Mr. Torres will present examples of how colleges and universities can benefit from participating in these programs in addition to being able to support increasing numbers of high school students.

June 6, 12:45-2:15 PM

Plenary Panel Discussion: Reflecting on A Year with the K-16 Partnerships Network

Room 1072

Members of the three K-16 Partnerships Non-profit Partnerships Committee, Service-Learning Committee and College Access Committee as well as representatives from the Teacher Education Alliance will discuss their activities and successes as well as goals and ideas for the upcoming year.

Non-profit Partnerships Committee

- Tatiana Poladko, Teen SHARP
- Dale Kesheshian, Healthworks Academies
- Jennifer Cardoso, Philadelphia Academies
- Tyler Hercules, Temple University
- Liz Shriver, PHENND

Service-learning Committee

- David Cooper Moore, Asst. Professor, Media Studies, Temple University
- Carrie Hutnick, Service-learning placement coordinator, St. Joes University

